K.S.A. 40-2404 states,

The following are hereby defined as unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the business of insurance:

An advertisement shall not use a trade name, an insurance group designation, name of the parent company of the insurer, name of a particular division of the insurer, service mark, slogan, symbol or other device or reference without disclosing the name of the insurer, if the advertisement would have the capacity or tendency to mislead or deceive as to the true identify of the insurer or create the impression that a company other than the insurer would have any responsibility for the financial obligation under a policy.
2. No advertisement shall use any combination of words, symbols or physical materials that by their content, phraseology, shape, color or other characteristics are so similar to a combination of words, symbols or physical materials used by a governmental program or agency or otherwise appear to be of such a nature that they tend to mislead prospective insureds into believing that the solicitation is in some manner connected with a governmental program or agency.

K.S.A. 40-2,125 states, in pertinent part,
