Media advisory: Kansas Insurance Department to hold mobile office hours in Ford County

Topeka, Kan. - Kansas Insurance Commissioner Vicki Schmidt, today, announced the Kansas Insurance Department will set up a mobile office in Dodge City on Thursday, June 8. Employees from the Department will be on hand to help members of the public with consumer complaints, fraud reports, licensing and registration inquiries, and answer questions about insurance and securities. The mobile office will be located at the Santa Fe Depot, 101 East Wyatt Earp Boulevard, Dodge City from the hours of 12:00 to 3:00 pm.

“One of my goals as Insurance Commissioner is to make our office and the services we provide as accessible as possible,” Commissioner Schmidt said. “I hope the residents of Ford County and the surrounding counties will come talk to us in-person about any insurance and securities issues they may have.”

What: Kansas Insurance Department Mobile Office

When: June 8, 2023, from 12-3:00 pm.

Where: Santa Fe Depot
